

Michael Chekhov Europe Training

Chekhov International School at SfSH Hamburg

International acting workshop

The Breathing Space

Atmosphere – Creative Individuality – Play

15 - 19 May 2019

Hamburg, Germany

with

Lenard Petit, Michael Chekhov Acting Studio New York, USA

Olivia Rüdinger, Schule für Schauspiel Hamburg, Germany

Ulrich Meyer-Horsch, Michael Chekhov Europe e.V. and Altonaer Theater Hamburg

The space on stage is full of life, full of energy and breath. All an actor has to do is connect to this living space. Performing then becomes quite simple.

In this workshop we explore the space of a given play. What happens when we dive into the writer's world and allow ourselves to be surprised by its specific dynamics, energy, language and space? Michael Chekhov's concepts of "Atmosphere" ("the soul of every piece of art") and "The Feeling of Ease, Form, Beauty and the Whole" will guide us through this exploration. The workshop will combine the Chekhov Technique with Wilhelm Reich's approach to organic breathing.

Movement in Space – Objective Atmosphere – Spatial Relationship – Tempo-Rhythm – Personal Atmosphere – Feeling of Ease, Feeling of Form, Feeling of Beauty and Feeling of the Whole – Organic breathing – Playfulness

Please prepare a short monologue from the selected play. The play will be announced approx. 4 weeks before the workshop starts.

FACULTY

Lenard Petit

Director of the Michael Chekhov Acting Studio, New York City; founding member of Michael Chekhov Association MICHA; author of the "Michael Chekhov Handbook for the Actor"

Lenard Petit has been working in the theatre for forty years collaborating with other artists to create original works for the stage, cinema, and television. He has directed plays and performance pieces on and Off Broadway, and in Great Britain. As an actor, he has performed in works by Julie Taymor, Meredith Monk, Richard Foreman, Ping Chong, and many others.

One of a handful of teacher students trained by the original members of Michael Chekhov's Theatre School, in 2016, Mr. Petit was invited to create a Michael Chekhov Workshop and Festival in connection with The Shanghai Theatre Academy, Theatre Arts Festival Shanghai, China. He has been invited to teach master classes in Amsterdam, Rome, Lisbon, Madrid, Berlin, Munich, Helsinki, Oslo, Reykjavik, Brussels, Zurich, Dublin, London, Riga, Vilnius, and Irkutsk, Siberia. Mr Petit has been a member of the faculty of the National Academy of Arts in Oslo (KHIO), Norway. For twenty-five years he taught the Chekhov Technique in the MFA and BFA Acting programs at Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University.

Olivia Rüdinger

Acting coach, Artistic director of Schule für Schauspiel Hamburg

Olivia Ruedinger, US-Citizen, has been a highly recognized acting coach in Germany for more than thirty years.

She received her bachelors degree in speech and dramatics from the University of Minnesota. Later, she studied modern dance and dance pedagogy at the Lola Rogge School in Hamburg and became a member of the faculty, teaching modern dance and improvisation. For the next 8 years she studied Reichian breathing technique and body work.

During this time she directed and performed in the dance theatre company „Winter auf Mallorca“.

1987 she founded together with her partner Michaela Uhlig the drama school „Schule für Schauspiel Hamburg“ (SfSH). There she is the artistic director and teaches breathing, improvisation and organic movement.

Ulrich Meyer-Horsch

Actor and theatre director. Michael Chekhov Europe e.V.

Ulrich Meyer-Horsch has been acting and directing in German state and regional theatres for more than twenty years: Theater Kiel, Theater Lübeck, Deutsches Schauspielhaus Hamburg, Schauspiel Frankfurt, Kampnagel Hamburg, Altonaer Theater, Komödie Düsseldorf, Maxim Gorki Theater Berlin, among others. He has worked with Simon McBurney and Complicite, Augusto Boal and Yoshi Oida.

Ulrich Meyer-Horsch holds a degree in Acting from Schule für Schauspiel Hamburg (SfSH) and diplomas in Theology, Philosophy and Theatre Pedagogy from the universities of Heidelberg, Hamburg, and London (King's College). He studied with Michael Chekhov's former students Hurt Hatfield, Deidre Hurst du Prey, Mala Powers and Joanna Merlin as well as with master teachers from Germany and Russia. In his approach to the Chekhov Technique he incorporates the exploration of children's games and work with masks. Since 1994 he has been teaching throughout Europe, Russia, the Middle East, Brazil, the US, Japan, Singapore and Taiwan. He is a lecturer at Yeditepe University, Istanbul, Turkey, and a member of the international faculty of MICHA, New York. For the last 12 years he has also been teaching improvisation, imagination and scene study at SfSH. A founding member of Michael Chekhov Europe e.V., he has co-created MCE's educational curriculum which is taught in 15 countries in Europe and Asia.
